TRANSPORT Travel to and from School at the beginning and end of term, half term and weekend leave, together with travel for medical and dental appointments, may be added to School accounts. All other travel should be settled directly.

- Termly fees include Personal Accident Insurance. Parents are advised to take out their own insurance for loss or damage to personal effects.
- Additional charges will be made for such items as: breakages; Design & Technology and Art project materials; entrance fees for public examinations; CAS application charges; some extra-curricular activities; hairdressing; sheet music.
- The majority of our clubs and activities are free but a small number, involving specialist coaching, incur a charge per term such as ballet, dance, karate, golf or judo. Horse riding is charged per session.
- There is a sibling discount of 25% on the above fees (as reduced by scholarships etc) for the third youngest and subsequent child in full time education at the King's Foundation simultaneously.
- School fees are payable on or before the first day of term. A charge of 1.5% per month will be levied on the outstanding balance of all accounts not settled by the first day of term.
- Notice of withdrawal from the School must be received, in writing, by the Headmaster before the start of the preceding term. Failure to give adequate notice renders parents liable for full fees, in lieu of notice, for the following term. One term's full notice, in writing, is also required to discontinue music lessons and other optional extras.
